

The Ultimate Sacrifice

He was coming back from lunch,
When he heard the call,
He started that way,
With no time to stall,
A man with a gun,
Had made several threats,
They would take him into custody,
Where he would have to pay his debts,
Scott went in the back door,
He tried to do what is right,
He wanted to save the lady,
He ended up in a gun fight,

Its called the Ultimate Sacrifice,
He has been honored in every way,
But the biggest honor of it all,
Is the way he honored us each day,
If you knew Scott you liked him,
He always had a smile,
He was the very best,
He always went the extra mile,

We will miss him dearly,
We have him in our hearts,
There are so many lives today,
Where he played a major part,
Scott you are now a Hero,
We are all so very proud,
You have a different watch now,
This one is in the clouds,
You walk the streets of Heaven,
Its said they are made of gold,
I've been told there is no greater place,
I believe what I've been told!
